

Digital Technology and Culture 338

Washington State University, spring 2008

Assignments due for: April 16, 2008

Assignments:

[] Complete your podcast related to your topic, using a script and following the posted grading criteria, and post it to your blog before class begins on April 16. It should work smoothly, without any technical glitches, for visitors to your blog. Prepare a five-minute presentation of your work. This is the second really big assignment of the class, worth 100 points (or 10 percent of your grade).

[] Continue to collect your video images, audio recordings and textual information for your news video and podcast. Work on your storyboard for your video.

Readings:

* Roszak's "Descartes Angel," pgs. 234-244.
