

Digital Technology and Culture 338

Washington State University, spring 2008

Assignments due for: April 23, 2008

Assignments:

[ ] Complete your news video related to your topic, using storyboards and a script and following the posted grading criteria, and post it to your blog before class begins on April 23. It should work smoothly, without any technical glitches, for visitors to your blog. Prepare a five-minute presentation of your work. This is the third really big assignment of the class, worth 150 points (or 15 percent of your grade).

[ ] Make sure your blog has all of the required elements of the final portfolio in this class posted on it, using posted grading criteria. This is worth a quarter of your grade, 250 points!

[ ] Review readings from the final third of the class for the final quiz.

Readings:

No additional readings required.
