

Digital Technology and Culture 338

Washington State University, spring 2008

Assignments due for: April 9, 2008

Assignments:

[] Create a podcast / video that introduces yourself to your web viewers, explaining who you are and what information you hope to share. Post it to your blog. This will be part of your final portfolio.

[] Type your podcast script, in a clear and legible format, including the parts spoken by other people and musical direction, etc. Bring a copy to class. This will be shared and refined.

[] Continue to collect your video images, audio recordings and textual information for your news video and podcast. Work on your storyboard for your video.

Readings:

* Roszak's "Information, Please," pgs. 3-20, and "Ben Franklin's Information Service," pgs. 173-201.
