Assignments:

- [] Memorize and orally present a passage of text that is of artistic importance to you. (25 points, pass/fail). This should be something that conveys a complete idea or thought (and could be incorporated into other projects later in this class). It can be prose, or a poem, or even song lyrics (12 lines minimum). It should be something that means something to you on a personal level. Imagine that every human record instantaneously was wiped out, and your brain contained the only knowledge of these words. What would you save? And why?

Give me a printed copy of the text before your presentation.

Readings:

- Kenneth Burke's Ch. 1, pgs. 3-24.
