

Digital Technology and Culture 338

Washington State University, spring 2008

Assignments due for: March 19, 2008

REMINDER: No class on March 12 because of spring break.

Assignments:

[] Collect the rest of your photographic images, audio recordings and textual information for your slideshow. You should come to class on March 19 fully ready to put the slideshow together, or polish what you already have put together.

[] Find one more slideshow on a professional media site that you think is worth sharing, one that relates to what you are trying to do with your piece. Then post that, with a link, as well as the reason you chose it, to the DTC 338 Google forum. Due: Before the start of class on March 19.

[] Blog two more items about your topic, with at least one of those entries coming from original sourced information. Due: Before the start of class on March 19.

Readings:

* Roszak's "The Data Merchants," pgs. 21-46.

* Talbott's "Settlers in Cyberspace," pgs. 43-55.
