

Digital Technology and Culture 338

Washington State University, spring 2008

Assignments due for: March 26, 2008

Assignments:

[] Complete your slideshow related to your topic, using a storyboard and following the posted grading criteria, and post it to your blog before class begins on March 26. It should work smoothly, without any technical glitches, for visitors to your blog. Prepare a five-minute presentation of your work. This is the first really big assignment of the class, worth 150 points (or 15 percent of your grade). You will get a chance to present it on March 19.

Readings:

* Roszak's "Computers and Pure Reason," pgs. 108-134.
