[] Continue work on your mobile project

AND

[] Prompt 9 (10 points) – Bring to the class -- via a Tweet – one creative way you could market your mobile project to an audience larger than just this class via social media (particularly to your primary demographic), including a link of an example of someone who has done something similar with encouraging results. So this Tweet should include the idea, the example and the link. It also should not repeat or be too similar to anything anyone else in the class has posted earlier.

Readings:

[] Palfrey and Gasser, pgs. 215-227 of your course pack.
