[ ] 10-Step List (20 points): After reading Miller's chapter on making a 10-step list to help formulate a better new project plan, work with your team to develop such a 10-step list for your mobile module. The better these are, the easier (and more painless) the next week's assignment will be. But this one is more of a working document than a polished final piece. Feel free to let the ideas flow here. But try to be focused as well.

Reading:

Miller, p 67-90.
